DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is an ERP, business intelligence, and enterprise integration company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as an SAP consultant pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(2). As required by statute, a labor certification accompanied the petition. The director determined that the beneficiary did not satisfy the minimum level of education stated on the labor certification. The director denied the petition accordingly.

The AAO issued a Request for Evidence and Notice of Intent to Dismiss (NOID) on August 13, 2012 concerning the actual minimum educational requirements of the offered position.<sup>1</sup> The AAO explained that it consulted a database which states that the beneficiary's Bachelor of Science degree "represents attainment of a level of education comparable to two to three years of university study in the United States;" his Master of Business Administration "represents attainment of a level of education comparable to a bachelor's degree in the United States;" and his passage of the Final Examination from the ICWAI "represents attainment of a level of education comparable to a bachelor's degree in the United States." The AAO solicited additional evidence of the beneficiary's credentials.

The AAO also requested evidence to establish that the petitioner has the ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition and continuing up to the present. Specifically, the petitioner was instructed to submit tax returns or audited financial statements for the petitioner for 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2011 and Forms W-2 or 1099 (if any) for the beneficiary for 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2011.

This office allowed the petitioner 30 days in which to respond to the NOID. In the NOID, the AAO specifically alerted the petitioner that failure to respond to the NOID could result in dismissal of the appeal. The failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry shall be grounds for denying the petition. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14). More than 30 days have passed and the petitioner has failed to respond with proof that the beneficiary possessed the required education for the offered position and that it has the ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage.

Thus, the appeal will be summarily dismissed as abandoned. See also 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13).

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed as abandoned.
